Dear Sir,

Ad-hoc Announcement by Linde AG

We refer to our announcement on 2 June 2017 titled- "Ad-Hoc Announcement by Linde AG [Ultimate Holding Company]" wherein we had enclosed a copy of the Ad-Hoc announcement issued by Linde AG with respect to the signing of the legally binding Business Combination Agreement with Praxair Inc. governing the terms and conditions of a merger of equals between the two companies. In furtherance of the same, we enclose a copy of the Ad-hoc Announcement issued by Linde AG on 23 October 2017 titled- "Linde PLC lowers minimum acceptance ratio for the voluntary public takeover offer (exchange offer) to the shareholders of Linde AG from 75% to 60%".

This may please be treated as compliance with Reg. 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Pawan Marda

Asst. Vice President and Company Secretary

Encl.: As above

Ad Hoc Announcement

Linde AG: Linde PLC lowers minimum acceptance ratio for the voluntary public takeover offer (exchange offer) to the shareholders of Linde AG from 75% to 60%.

(Munich, 23rd October 2017) On 15 August 2017, Linde PLC published an offer document regarding its voluntary public takeover offer in the form of an exchange offer ("Exchange Offer") to the shareholders of Linde AG to acquire all ordinary bearer shares without par value of Linde AG. The settlement of the Exchange Offer is subject to various closing conditions including, inter alia, an acceptance of the Exchange Offer by 75% of all Linde shares entitled to voting rights as further described in the offer document.

Linde PLC decided to lower the minimum acceptance ratio for the Exchange Offer from 75% to 60% following the consent by Linde AG and Praxair, Inc., respectively. Linde PLC intends to publish the respective amendment to the offer document during the course of today, inter alia, on the internet at <http://www.lindepraxairmerger.com>. Due to such amendment to the offer document, the acceptance period of the Exchange Offer will be extended by two weeks. Thus, the lowered minimum acceptance ratio has to be reached by 7 November 2017, 24:00 hours (CET).

The lowering of the minimum acceptance ratio allows that certain shareholders who are restricted from tendering at an earlier stage are also included in the Exchange Offer. This is especially true for index funds which usually do not tender their shares before the respective index is adjusted to the tendered share line in the context of the Exchange Offer.

The business combination remains subject to the satisfaction of closing conditions, including the reduced minimum acceptance threshold of 60% and the receipt of all regulatory approvals. Irrespective of reaching the reduced minimum acceptance ratio, the business combination may still fail if an adverse tax event occurred should the acceptance ratio as of the end of the two-week additional acceptance period pursuant to section 16(2) WpÜG not reach the threshold of 74%. In case of an adverse tax event, Linde AG and/or Praxair, Inc. will likely exercise a termination right under the business combination agreement if necessary to avoid significant disadvantages, which would likely lead to a non-satisfaction of the closing conditions. Linde AG and Praxair, Inc. continue to expect that all offer conditions and relevant thresholds will be met and that the business combination will be completed in the second half of 2018 as contemplated.

Person making the notification Dr Frank Herkenhoff, Head of Corporate Communications Linde AG
